May 14, 1923.

This is in lieu of No. 14.

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, Axel Norstadt, whose post office address is Seldovia, Alaska, is hereby authorized to operate a small plant at Anchor Point, on the eastern shore of Cook Inlet, for the salting or mildcuring of salmon for commercial purposes; and to operate his salting station in Halibut Cove, Kachemak Bay, for the preparation of herring and codfish on a small scale for market, within the Cook Inlet district of said reservation, during the calendar year 1923, under the following conditions:

1. That Permit No. Cordova-14, issued April 10, 1923, to said permittee, granting certain fishery operations, is hereby canceled, and in lieu thereof a new permit, granting the additional privilege of salting silver salmon, as herein specified, is issued to the permittee, in accordance with his request.

2. That the permittee may operate 150 fathoms of king salmon gill net and 2 50-fathom salmon gill nets, for the taking of red and silver salmon, on the east shore of Cook Inlet, between Anchor Point and Cape Starichkof; and may catch and pack not to exceed 10 tierces of mild cured king salmon, and 50 barrels of salted silver salmon. Fresh salmon (other than king) may be sold to any company or individual authorized to operate within said district.

3. That the permittee may catch and prepare herring and codfish on a small scale for market in all legal ways in Kachemak Bay and the waters adjacent thereto. That no restrictions are imposed as to the kind and amount of fishing gear that may be used, and the amount of herring and codfish that may be packed. Purse seines used in the taking of herring shall not be employed for the taking of salmon within the reservation.

4. That the permittee shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation, (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

5. That this permit expires December 31, 1923, is not transferable and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.
